

What is the Small Business Financial Counselling Service?

The primary role of the Small Business Financial Counselling Service Program is to support Small Businesses who are experiencing hardship or at risk of hardship due to internal and external factors.

Small Business owners face many challenges which could be as a result of drought, floods, bushfires or COVID-19 as well as unforeseen impacts at any point in time.

The Australian and Queensland Governments provide funding to deliver the program throughout Southern Queensland.

Small Business Financial Counsellors provide assistance across the Southern Queensland region with head office based in Roma.

Small Business Financial Counselling Service - Southern Queensland

Act early Discuss and consider options

Small Businesses are facing significant challenges and may be at risk of financial hardship.

The Small Business Financial Counselling Service - Southern Queensland understands the pressures and impacts that adverse conditions can place on individuals and the business.

Our primary goal is to work with small business owners, providing the support they need, to manage financial difficulties and move forward with a plan for a better future.

“ My financial counsellor assisted me to identify options for my business in the future. I feel more secure and my business is too.”

How can a Small Business Financial Counsellor help you?

Small Business Financial Counsellors aim to identify options which allow you, and your business to be better equipped to manage your circumstances.

We can:

- Assess and prepare reports on your current financial position, cash flow and viability
- Identify appropriate business options and help you develop an action plan
- Help prepare you for meetings with financial institutions
- Assist with preparation for and management of natural disasters and other business interruptions
- Identify the need for additional assistance and advice
- Refer to other professionals and service providers within government and private sectors

Working together

Our services are:

- Free of charge, confidential, impartial and independent
- Delivered by skilled, local professionals who know your area and industry

Small Business Financial Counsellors do not provide advice, but can provide you with the tools and knowledge necessary to make informed financial decisions.

If you would like to discuss your financial position and become better prepared to manage future challenges, contact one of our small business counsellors today.

“ I wish I knew about the service earlier. A great service.”
